

The Very Special Hexagon Cardigan

Material:

- Woolly Hugs CHARITY, 200 g in white and 300 g in camel brown
- 5 mm crochet hook
- scissors and sewing needle
- stitch markers and tape measure (optional)

Abbreviations:

R = round, ch = chain, sl st = slip stitch, sp = space,
st(s) = stitches, dc = double crochet

Notes:

This cardigan is a S/M size. The ch 3 counts as a double crochet stitch. You will crochet 22 rounds in total for each hexagon. For my cardi I crocheted one hexagon different like the other one. The color change is different and therefore the cardigan is a very special one. Add more rows of granny stitch to the bottom to make your cardigan in the length you like. Same for the sleeves: crochet more rounds of granny stitch for the desired length.

Hexagon 2:

For the second hexagon I used the same pattern as hexagon 1 but only with color change.

Seaming:

With the wrong sides facing each other, fold your hexagons in half (create an L shape) and, using a slip stitch, seam the cardigan along shoulder as shown in the picture.

With color 1 or 2, seam down the back of the cardigan, leaving the front edge open.

Bottom edge and collar:

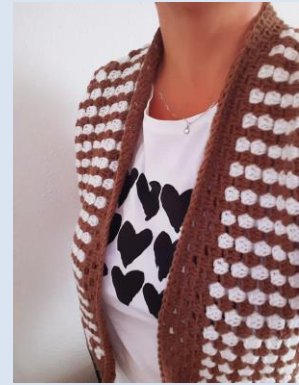

With color 2, attach yarn into any ch 2 sp along body opening.

R 1: ch 3, 2 dc, 3 dc into the next ch 2 sp, repeat from * to *.

For the corners work 3 dc, ch 2, 3 dc.

Finish round with sl st to the beginning of ch 3.

R 2-4: repeat R 1.

Sleeves:

With color 2, attach yarn into any stitch.

R1: ch 3, crochet in every second stitch a dc and sl st to the beginning of ch 3.

R 2: ch 3, crochet a front post dc with back post dc creating a ribbed effect, sl st to the beginning of ch3.

R 3-8: repeat R 2.

Finishing:

Fasten off and weave in ends. Sewn on buttons if you like.

And now you're done!
